

Review of: "On a New Two-Point Taylor Expansion With Applications"

Avrilia Konguetsof<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Dimocritus University of Thrace

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

An interesting article and easy to read, proposing a new two-point Taylor formula, but it is not clear why one would choose the new two-point Taylor expansion instead of the classical one. I think that is the most important point; otherwise, I would have rated the article with four stars.