

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Scleredema Adultorum

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Scleredema Adultorum. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85057.

A usually benign and self-limited skin disorder of unknown etiology, characterized by induration of the skin. It may be associated with infection, diabetes mellitus, and hematologic malignancies. Morphologically, there is deposition of mucin in the dermis.