Your manuscript can be published after major corrections.

1. Revise the abstract and add future directions shortly.
2. When authors discuss any mechanism or signaling pathway, authors should draw a mechanistic figure for better understanding.
3. Please add more citations or expand the introduction part.
4. Add novelty and future directions broadly in the conclusion.
5. Check every sentence and try to do it simply for the understanding of readers.
6. Please add the updated references and avoid old ones.
7. Rewrite the methodology part.
8. Authors should check the grammar again carefully.
9. I will suggest adding at least 3 figures in this manuscript.
