Object Constraint Language

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Object Constraint Language. NCI Thesaurus. Code C80515.

An extension to UML that provides constraint and object query expressions on an object-oriented model that cannot otherwise be expressed by diagrammatic notation, providing expressions that have neither the ambiguities of natural language nor the inherent difficulty of using complex mathematics.