

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Dark Field Microscopy

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Dark Field Microscopy. NCI Thesaurus. Code C85837.

A light microscopic technique in which the light that does not come into contact with the structures or details of interest is subtracted from the ocular image. This yields an image in which the structures or details are alight while the areas where the structures or details are absent are dark.