

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Neobladder

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Neobladder. NCI Thesaurus. Code C117718.

A urinary diversion after the removal of the urinary bladder that uses a loop of intestine that is surgically fashioned into a pouch and placed in the location of the original bladder and then attached to the ureters and urethra simulating the function of the original organ.