The problem

1. Please provide citation to the following statement. "According to surveys conducted over the past two decades, between 66% and 98% of students admit to cheating. The vast majority use unauthorised aids when they have the opportunity. A negligible number of students only use downloading in emergency situations."

Ethical Awareness and Legal Orders

1. Provide some discussion before writing on Applicable penalties:

Overall comments

This is an interesting article. However, first the author needs to highlight the objectives of the study. Then, the discussions should be organized in line with the relevant objectives. The discussion should be in paragraph forms.
