

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cell Movement Process

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cell Movement Process. NCI Thesaurus. Code C41517.

A Cell Movement Process consists of a change of position or place of a major cell surface extension (such as cilia, axons, microrovilli, filopodia), or of a whole cell or a cell body from one site to another.