1. This is a timely work providing insights on the current state of digitization of public libraries in Bangladesh.
2. There are inconsistencies in the format of writing the titles. The contributor(s) should stick to one style.
3. Some in-text citations are not properly written. For instance, "Digital Transformation", 2022; "What is Digital Transformation." The creators (be it individuals or corporate bodies) of the contents should be cited.
4. Corporate name that is appearing for the first time in the in-text citation should be written in full and abbreviated in the subsequent appearances. For instance, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development [OECD] (2017).
5. Conclusion should be drawn from the issues raised, while recommendations should also be made to appropriate authorities.
6. References should be properly listed based on the corrections suggested on the in-text citation.
