

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Chymotrypsin Protein Cleavage Reagent

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Chymotrypsin Protein Cleavage Reagent. NCI Thesaurus. Code C161883.

A protein cleavage reagent comprised of the serine proteinase chymotrypsin that cleaves proteins into peptides at the C-terminal side of a phenylalanine, tyrosine, tryptophan or leucine residue unless that residue is followed by a proline.