

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Spontaneous Intestinal Perforation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Spontaneous Intestinal Perforation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C114910.

A focal intestinal perforation without a definite cause, commonly located in the terminal ileum, lacking the transmural inflammation and/or pneumatosis typically seen in necrotizing enterocolitis.