

Review of: "Adoption of Technology Acceptance and Interfaces for Academic Information System Applications"

Kalina Trenevskia Blagoeva¹

¹ St.Cyril and Methodius University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The paper is well written, and the use of the TAM methodology is chosen in accordance with the research objectives. I would suggest a graphical presentation of the model used. I would recommend a better description of the sampling procedure and limitations of it. Also, a comparative study will be useful, and maybe the proposal of a further research model with the inclusion of some other constructs.

Analysis of the data is well done, although I would appreciate a more detailed interpretation of the results and conclusions.