

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Glycine Amidinotransferase, Mitochondrial

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Glycine Amidinotransferase, Mitochondrial. NCI Thesaurus. Code C122898.

Glycine amidinotransferase, mitochondrial (423 aa, ~48 kDa) is encoded by the human GATM gene. This protein plays a role in the conversion of L-arginine and glycine to creatine.