

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Bone Marrow Blasts Decreased by 50 Percent or More Compared to Pretreatment Level

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Bone Marrow Blasts Decreased by 50 Percent or More Compared to Pretreatment Level. NCI Thesaurus. Code C153557.

A semiquantitative finding indicating that the amount of immature mononuclear cells in a subject's sample of nucleated cells from bone marrow has decreased by 50 percent or more over the value recorded for a pretreatment sample from that subject.