The authors have done good work and have presented valuable information. In spite of this, there are some minor revision works to be conducted such as:

1. Please provide a strong statement to support the novelty of the study.
2. There are several structural errors (grammatical errors, inappropriate sentences, etc.) in different portions of this paper. Please revise the paper and correct them.
3. There is some repetitive information; please summarize the information and avoid repetition.
4. It would be better to include a picture to show the location of the study area.
5. There is a need for a detailed study and suitable data that further support your findings and make it more informative.
6. There is a need for an appropriate flow of information and the removal of unwanted statements from the entire paper.
7. Conclusion: Please provide limitations of the study (if any).
8. It would be better to add more references from good journals.
