

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Clinical Preventive Practices

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Clinical Preventive Practices. NCI Thesaurus. Code C15899.

Subcategory of Lifestyle and Disease Prevention in CAM. This sub-category deals with unconventional approaches whose purpose is to screen for and prevent health-related imbalances, dysfunction's and disease. Examples include, unconventional screening and diagnostic practices, such as electro-dermal diagnostics, medical intuition, chiriography, functional cellular enzyme measures, and preventive practices such as panchakarma.