

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Navigated Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Navigated Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation. NCI Thesaurus. Code C162608.

Transcranial magnetic stimulation that uses image-based knowledge of individual patient brain anatomy for determining the dose and location targeting of stimulation. Navigation combines data on anatomical structures with known delivery of stimulation, forming the basis for dose determination and targeting.