

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Functioning Pancreatic Neuroendocrine Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Functioning Pancreatic Neuroendocrine Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C45840.

A low or intermediate grade well differentiated tumor with neuroendocrine differentiation that arises from the pancreas. It is characterized by the presence of a clinical syndrome that results from hormone hypersecretion.