

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Acute Myeloid Leukemia with Multilineage Dysplasia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Acute Myeloid Leukemia with Multilineage Dysplasia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C9289.

An acute myeloid leukemia arising de novo and not as a result of treatment. It is characterized by the presence of myelodysplastic features in at least 50% of the cells of at least two hematopoietic cell lines. Patients often present with severe cytopenia.