

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Septum Pellucidum

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Septum Pellucidum. NCI Thesaurus. Code C33536.

A bilateral laminae of fibers, sparse grey matter, and neuroglia in the brain that separates the lateral ventricles and stretches inferiorly between the column and body of the fornix, and both superiorly and anteriorly to the corpus callosum.