

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cryoglobulinemic vasculitis

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base.

Cryoglobulinemic vasculitis. ORPHA:91138

Mixed cryoglobulinemia (MC) is a rare multisystem disease characterized by the presence of circulating cryoprecipitable immune complexes in the serum, manifested clinically by a classical triad of purpura, weakness and arthralgia.