Review of: "An approach to the background, methods and challenges of research in disasters"

G.T. Madhubhashini
1 Open University of Sri Lanka

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Timely and significant. No need to have paragraphs in the abstract. The research gap and the problem statement should be clearly presented using literature. The discussion should be critically done using literature rather than just reporting facts and information.