

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Raji Cell Radioimmunoassay

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Raji Cell Radioimmunoassay. NCI Thesaurus. Code C135459.

A type of complement receptor-dependent immune complex assay that uses radiolabeled anti-IgA, anti-IgG, or anti-IgM Raji cells to detect the presence of soluble immune complexes in biologic fluids.