

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Perflexane

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Perflexane. NCI Thesaurus. Code C47663.

A fluorinated hydrocarbon and gaseous substance used as an imaging contrast agent in echocardiogram. After administration in microsphere form, perflexane increases ultrasound reflectivity of blood. This leads to an improvement of ultrasound signaling.