

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Doctor of Social Work

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Doctor of Social Work. NCI Thesaurus. Code C71360.

A doctoral degree for experienced social work practitioners in advanced practice, research and/or policy analysis (although some DSW recipients are not social workers). Much of the course work emphasizes qualitative and quantitative analysis methods. The degree typically leads to teaching, research, leadership roles in agencies, or self-employed social work practice.