

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Carey-Fineman-Ziter syndrome

INSERM

Source

INSERM. (1999). Orphanet: an online rare disease and orphan drug data base. Carey-Fineman-Ziter syndrome. ORPHA:1358

Carey-Fineman-Ziter (CFZ) syndrome is a rare condition characterized by the association of hypotonia, Moebius sequence (bilateral congenital facial palsy with impairment of ocular abduction), Pierre-Robin sequence (micrognathia, glossoptosis, and high-arched or cleft palate), unusual face, and growth delay.