

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Carboxymethylcellulose Sodium-containing Eye Drop

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Carboxymethylcellulose Sodium-containing Eye Drop. NCI Thesaurus. Code C106410.

An eye drop solution containing the sodium salt form of carboxymethylcellulose (CMC) used as artificial tears. Upon application of the drops into the eye, carboxymethylcellulose sodium lubricates the eye and prevents or relieves dryness and irritation.