

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Thymic Lymphoepithelioma-Like Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Thymic Lymphoepithelioma-Like Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7998.

A rare, usually aggressive primary thymic carcinoma, characterized by a syncytial growth of undifferentiated carcinoma cells and the presence of a lymphoplasmacytic infiltrate. More than 40% of cases are associated with Epstein-Barr virus infection.