

Review of: "The Universal Accessibility Provisions in Educational Institutes of New Delhi, India"

Wafula Yenjela¹

¹ South Eastern Kenya University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This article examines People Living with Disability's universal accessibility to education in India. The researchers excellently elucidate their findings. The article significantly contributes to knowledge as it advocates reforms towards the right to education.