

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Complete Hematologic Response

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Complete Hematologic Response. NCI Thesaurus. Code C123575.

The disappearance of cancer in response to treatment, including platelet and white blood cell counts returning to normal levels, a non-palpable spleen, and no immature white blood cells present in the blood unless it is a regenerating marrow following treatment.