Open Peer Review on Qeios

Wide Skin Excision

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Wide Skin Excision. NCI Thesaurus. Code C48608.

Surgical excision of diseased skin tissue with a border of healthy tissue surrounding the lesion. It is often used as a treatment for skin cancers. The margin of the healthy tissue may range from a few millimeters for small cancers up to around 15 mm for larger cancers.