

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Transient Tachypnea of the Newborn

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Transient Tachypnea of the Newborn. NCI Thesaurus. Code C101037.

A respiratory disorder characterized by higher than normal respiratory rates among premature and cesarean section delivered neonates whose lungs have not fully matured. The cause is often excess fluid in the lungs, and resolution is aided by supplemental oxygen and sometimes, antibiotics.