

Open Peer Review on Qeios

GAIA Level 2a Failure to Thrive

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. GAIA Level 2a Failure to Thrive. NCI Thesaurus. Code C128771.

GAIA Level 2a Failure to Thrive is defined by either of two criteria: first, the following four requirements must be present: a) Infant age determined by a documented birth date; b) Weights are obtained using a beam balance scale; c) A minimum of two documented weights measured at least four weeks apart; d) Weight for age deceleration must pass through at least two centile spaces on a growth chart; OR second, the following four requirements must be present: a) Infants have an undocumented birth date, where age is determined based on mother's recall to the nearest month; b) Weights are obtained using an electronic scale; c) A minimum of two weights measured at least four weeks apart; d) Weight for age deceleration must pass through at least two centile spaces on a growth chart.