

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Conjunctival Squamous Cell Carcinoma

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Conjunctival Squamous Cell Carcinoma. NCI Thesaurus. Code C4549.

A low-grade squamous cell carcinoma that arises from the conjunctiva. It is the most common primary malignant tumor that arises from the conjunctiva. It usually affects older white males. Excessive exposure to sunlight is a risk factor. Patients may present with a mass, red eye, or pain.