

Review of: "Differences in Regional Productivity and Imbalance in Regional Growth"

Nigel D'Silva¹

¹ Tata Institute of Social Sciences

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

This paper is well written and has sound empirical basis. It attempts to address a pertinent research question on the relationship between regional productivity and regional economic growth. However, I have a few suggestions the authors may want to include in their research paper. First, the literature needs some updation, latest literature reviews on the aforesaid topic could be also utilized. Second, the justification of your model choice versus other models. Do Stochastic Frontier Modelling Approach and DEA approaches give better reliability?