This is a very excellent paper overall

Strength - Attention to detail is clear and well explained.

Weakness - This appears to be a narrative review; however, this is not discussed either in the title or the missing materials and methods. Please clarify.

Specifics - No personal pronouns in academic writing - no "I," no "me," no "our." Make sure that you include a materials and methods section talking about the type of review that this is. Lastly, make sure that you are cautious with the abstract - it's really long and may be over the word count for most journals - you don't want to have to fix this on the back end with a 2-week deadline.

Best,
