

Review of: "The Instances of Insomnia among Adolescents in High School Addicted to Online Games"

Jeong Min Choi¹

¹ Mokpo National University

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Clearly presenting the scholarly significance of the research in the introduction of a research paper is of utmost importance. The introduction serves to introduce the research topic to the readers and explain the background, purpose, and significance of the study. The academic value and contribution of the research should be succinctly yet distinctly articulated.