

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Fullerene

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Fullerene. NCI Thesaurus. Code C62382.

One of three known pure forms of carbon that exhibits a spherical shape with a hollow interior. The number of carbon atoms comprising fullerenes is variable and several stable spherical carbon structures containing 70 or more atoms have been documented.