

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Post Kala-Azar Dermal Leishmaniasis

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Post Kala-Azar Dermal Leishmaniasis. NCI Thesaurus. Code C34936.

A cutaneous form of leishmaniasis which sometimes occurs after visceral leishmaniasis treatment. It is characterized by hypo-pigmented macules, papules, plaques, nodules, or facial erythema; and is considered to be a durable infection reservoir for visceral leishmaniasis.