

Review of: "Who Is Afraid of COVID-19: An Inherited Approach for the Future of EFL"

Marcelo Panza¹

¹ Universidad Nacional del Este

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The second sentence of the abstract is not clear. It is suggested not to cite authors within the summary.
2. Second page, fifth line, first word: correct "Epedemic."
3. Second page, seventh line: correct the quote—without parentheses, the last name; correct the last name as well—it is Freire, not Friere.
4. Second page, tenth line: missing full stop.
5. Third page, after the title 3., begin with a capital letter.
6. The conceptualization of coping is excessively enumerative; a synthesis is suggested.
7. In theories about coping, the evidence presented by the theories is left aside.
8. Page 4, penultimate line: correct the word "pedemic."
9. Research regarding the evidence for the cited theories is lacking throughout the article.
10. The article makes claims without being supported by evidence, rather based on theories and personal appreciations.