

Review of: "The Role of Women's Business Performance in Promoting Sustainable Development"

Aftab Shoukat

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

Author' work is good. My suggestion is to add theory which supports this study. Author should explain the theory and how does this theory relate to this study. Details of all the factor leading to women performance in business should be given. More literature is needed to support the relationship of each variabe with the dependent variable. Recommendations should be given in detail containing clear guidelines to companies as to what they should do to increase women performance in business.