

Review of: "Education, Artificial Intelligence, and the Digital Age"

Natália Teixeira<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Instituto Superior de Gestão - ISG

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

An extremely interesting and topical subject. However, the structure of the article should be more elaborate with a more critical literature review and not just a descriptive one. In the results and discussion, the contribution of the different methodological tools used is not clear. The conclusions are also limited and do not criticise the literature review.

There are some inaccuracies in the references made, and the figures and citations in the article are not correctly referenced.