

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Drug-Induced Aplastic Anemia

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Drug-Induced Aplastic Anemia. NCI Thesaurus. Code C35343.

A state of bone marrow suppression and failure that is caused by a cytotoxic or adverse immunologic response to a drug treatment, leading to a failure of production of red blood cells, white cells and platelets.