Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

1. The abstract is unsatisfactory in both format and content, and it is recommended that the author rewrite it.
2. The author mentioned the use of SWOT method to analyze the digital platform for integrated electronic procurement of customized components, but the results were not clearly presented in the manuscript, which is confusing.
3. On page 8 (TTo join the Eproccos platform, customers are required to provide several key details.), the word 'To' is misspelled.
4. Figures 3.4 and 3.5 have duplicate names, and Figures 3.6 and 3.7 are also the same.
5. Table 1.3 has an incorrect sequence number and the table name should be placed above the table. The same error occurred in Table 4.1.
6. There are many labeling issues that require the author to reconsider, such as the content on pages 2 and 8.
7. Acknowledgement should be placed after the Conclusion.
8. In the conclusion section, we want to have a clearer understanding of the author's research work, results, and significance.
