

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Thyroid Gland Hyalinizing Trabecular Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Thyroid Gland Hyalinizing Trabecular Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C6846.

A rare, circumscribed or encapsulated tumor arising from the follicular cells of the thyroid gland. It is characterized by a trabecular growth pattern and hyalinized stroma formation. The vast majority of cases have a benign clinical course.