

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Division Head

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Division Head. NCI Thesaurus. Code C51821.

The official that is responsible for the administrative, research and medical activities within a clinical program or subdivision of organization such as a hospital. A division head is responsible for the overall direction in the conduct of research; provision and coordination of training and education; operations, staffing, and maintenance of the facilities.