

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Cullin Family Protein

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Cullin Family Protein. NCI Thesaurus. Code C26091.

A protein family whose members are components of ubiquitin ligase complexes, which are involved in ubiquitination and proteasomal degradation of target proteins. Cullins may act as a scaffold to promote the association of substrates with ubiquitin-conjugating enzymes.