

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Breast Phyllodes Tumor

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Breast Phyllodes Tumor. NCI Thesaurus. Code C7575.

A benign, malignant, or borderline circumscribed biphasic neoplasm that arises from the breast. It usually affects middle-aged women. It is characterized by the presence of a double layer of epithelial cells that are arranged in clefts, surrounded by a spindle cell mesenchymal (stromal) component.