

Review of: "The End of Objectivity and Subjectivity in Education Sciences"

Ľubomír Žáčok, PhD.¹

¹ Matej Bel University in Banská Bystrica

Potential competing interests: No potential competing interests to declare.

The scientific study is written on the formal and professional side at a very good level. I appreciate the detailed elaboration of the concepts of objective and subjective and their relationships in educational sciences. The author could still focus on a more detailed elaboration of the issue of the history of the emergence of the Science of Education discipline and its subsequent development up to the present day.