

Open Peer Review on Qeios

Intraductal Carcinoma of the Minor Salivary Gland

National Cancer Institute

Source

National Cancer Institute. Intraductal Carcinoma of the Minor Salivary Gland. NCI Thesaurus. Code C62192.

A rare, low-grade adenocarcinoma that arises from the salivary glands. It is characterized by the presence of cystic structures lined by ductal cells which are arranged in cribriform patterns. Adjacent ducts show intraductal proliferation.